

WELCOME

The Canadian Wood Preservation Association is pleased to invite you to take part in the 28th Annual Meeting in the Lowes Le Concorde Hotel, Quebec City Tuesday, October 16th and Wednesday, October 17th, 2007.

The Keynote Speaker is Professor John Ruddick of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC. John is a world renowned expert on wood preservation and he will give his perspectives on the past and future of wood preservation. The Keynote will lead off a topical session on "New Preservatives and Approaches to Protecting Wood" A special session on "Association – Issues, What we do for you", will be held on day two of the conference. Other major topics relate to issues related to treating Canadian species, challenges of stain development in hardwoods, biological control of degrading organisms and environmental impacts of preservative treatments.

The conference will be held consecutively with meetings of "Wood Preservation Canada" and the "Canadian Standards Association A336 Technical Committee on Wood Preservation".

The Hotel Loews Le Concorde is 20 minutes from the Jean Lesage International Airport, located in the heart of the city on the "Champs Élysées" of Québec; walking distance from the Plains of Abraham, Old City and many museums and monuments.

Registration for the meeting is $200.00 for members, $400.00 for non-members and $50.00 for students. The fee covers the cost of the meeting, two lunches and the President's Reception. Non-members who attend and apply for membership at the meeting will have the differential applied to their membership fee.

A registration desk will be open between 6:00 and 8:00 pm on Monday, October 15th, and from 7:30 a.m. to noon on October 16 and 17. To facilitate the arrangements, please complete the attached registration form and forward it to the

CWPA. We have negotiated a conference room rate of $182 single or double rate/night. To get the preferred rate, make your guestroom reservation directly with the hotel before
